

UK Branch of
Meir Panim

An invitation to meet
Business Owners and Leaders in Crouch End
for a charitable cause...

With generous assistance from our local sponsors..

You are cordially invited to a fundraising evening of music and song held in a penthouse with wonderful views over Crouch End and Alexandra Palace, on behalf of the charity Meir Panim UK.

Our high profile launch event earlier this year had former Chelsea Manager Avram Grant and the Israeli Ambassador to the UK making presentations.

Keeping our events ones to engage people of high profiles from local communities we are inviting politicians, business owners and leaders in Crouch End to come and experience the value of meeting one another in an atmosphere of food, music and art, while raising money for a good cause.

At a token entry price of £10 with the opportunity to donate more, we know you will have the opportunity to make some valuable connections.

Guest Singer/Pianist - Jenni Roditi

A chance to sneak preview composer Jenni Roditi's new music soon to be premiered at London's hottest new venue - Kings Place - where she is opening the LIFEM festival (London International Festival of Exploratory Music) on November 4th.

Art Exhibition by Shelly Vickers Pertz

Shelly is a visionary artist healer and inter-faith minister. Her painting, poetry and study of mysticism have been a gateway into understanding herself and a glimpse into a greater reality that we seldom take time to explore.

Meir Panim's raison d'être is to prevent poverty, distress and dependence on governmental aid or charity, and to build self-esteem and independence amongst needy populations in Israel. Meir Panim's UK branch aims to raise awareness and support for the organisation's work in Israel. You can find out more about Meir Panim's work at www.meirpanim.org.uk or by contacting its UK Director, Gaby Bauer on 020 82027508 or via email at gaby.blauer@meirpanimuk.org
Meir Panim is a registered UK charity, Registration number 1129738.
